

The public has spoken...and we want
our airwaves to represent us.

Showing a biased,
partisan documentary
like "Stolen Honor"
is doing American
citizens a major
disservice.

Media has a responsibility for a
fair and balanced
look at current events. Sinclair is showing a total lack
of responsibility in this regard.

If Sinclair insists
on broadcasting a
blatently anti-Kerry
ad, then it must also air an anti-Bush ad. That would be FAIR AND
BALANCED.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Daza
